

About Disability Commissioner Tasmania

Easy Read version

Easy Read

About Easy Read

Easy Read

This is an Easy Read document.
Easy Read uses pictures to explain ideas.

Bold

Bold

Hard words are in bold.
We tell you what they mean.

There is also a word list on page 16.

You can ask for help to read this document.
A friend, family member or support person may be able to help you.

About this document

We are Disability Commissioner Tasmania.
We wrote this document.

This is an Easy Read summary of the 'About us' webpages.
It includes the most important ideas.

You can find the webpages on our website.
www.disabilitycommissioner.tas.gov.au/about-us

What is in this document

| | |
|-----------------------------------|----|
| Who we are | 5 |
| About the Disability Commissioner | 6 |
| What we do | 7 |
| Reports | 9 |
| How to make a report | 11 |
| What we do with a report | 13 |
| Contact us | 14 |
| Word list | 16 |

Who we are

We are Disability Commissioner Tasmania.

We are independent.

This means we:

- make our own decisions
- do not take sides.

A new law guides our work.

This law is the Disability Rights, Inclusion and Safeguarding Act 2024.

This law protects the rights of people with disability.

Rights are rules about how everyone should be treated:

- fairly
- equally.

About the Disability Commissioner

The Disability Commissioner leads the office.

The Disability Commissioner is a person with disability.

Dr Catherine Whittington is the Disability Commissioner.

What we do

We protect and promote the rights of people with disability in Tasmania.

We do this by:

- listening to concerns

- promoting inclusion so everyone can take part and belong

- educating the community about disability rights

- taking reports from the community.

Reports

People can make a report to us.
This will be about a person with disability at risk of harm.

Harm can mean:

- violence - when someone hurts you

- abuse - when someone treats you badly

- neglect - when someone is not helping you the way they should

- coercion - when someone uses
 - fear
 - threats
 - pressure
 - tricks

to make you do something you do not want to do

- exploitation - when someone uses you in a way that is unfair.

How to make a report

You can make a report to us by:

Phone:

1800 179 249

Email:

contact@disabilitycommissioner.tas.gov.au

Mail:

Disability Commissioner Tasmania

GPO Box 123

Hobart, Tasmania

7001

Online form:

www.disabilitycommissioner.tas.gov.au/report

Visiting our office:
Level 5
188 Collins Street
Hobart, Tasmania
7001

Meeting us in a place where you feel safe.

What we do with a report

We will review the information.

We will contact you on our next actions.

If you or someone you know is in immediate danger, call 000.
This means now.

Contact us

Our office is open:

- Monday to Friday
- 9:00 am to 5:00 pm

You can call us.

1800 179 249

You can email us.

contact@disabilitycommissioner.tas.gov.au

You can send us a letter.

Disability Commissioner Tasmania
GPO Box 123
Hobart, Tasmania
7001

You can submit an enquiry on our website.
[https://www.disabilitycommissioner.tas.gov.au/
contact_us](https://www.disabilitycommissioner.tas.gov.au/contact_us)

You can visit us.
Level 5
188 Collins Street
Hobart, Tasmania
7001

You can meet us in a place where you feel safe.

Word list

Abuse

Abuse is when someone treats you badly.

Coercion

Coercion is when someone uses:

- fear
- threats
- pressure
- tricks

to make you do something you do not want to do.

Exploitation

Exploitation is when someone uses you in a way that is unfair.

Immediate

Immediate means now.

If you or someone you know is in immediate danger, call 000.

Word list

Independent

When an organisation is independent, they:

- make their own decisions
- do not take sides.

Neglect

Neglect is when someone is not helping you the way they should.

Rights

Rights are rules that say how you can choose to live your own life.

Violence

Violence is when someone hurts you.